

Reading Month 2021

St. Joseph the Worker School Open the Door to a World of Reading

March begins National Reading Month! We have planned some fun activities to celebrate during the month.

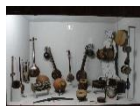

The theme this year is Open the Door to a World of Reading. Doors will be on display in the hallway. Each door will open to a new reading adventure. Students will be given a reading challenge specific to their grade level for the month of March. Teachers will be sending the challenge for their grade.

Wednesday, March 3rd - Reading is out of this World - come dressed in your wackiest outfit.

Wednesday, March 10th - Cuddle Up With a Good Book! Pajama Day.

Thursday, March 11th - World of Music virtual program for grades K - 6 during the day. At 7 PM in the evening there will be a family fun night performance. The link and instructions will be coming later. Guy Louis Sferlazza has been presenting his Chautauqua Express Musical Programs (aka Worlds of Music) since 1986 to rave reviews. His educational assembly programs span 14 different curriculum-enhancing themes. Ours will focus on reading.

Wednesday, March 17 - Wear Green Day - Students will learn about St. Patrick.

Friday, March 19 - Flashlight Friday- students will bring a flashlight and have free reading time and a snack.

Thursday, March 25 - Hats Off to Reading Day - wear a hat in celebration of the day! Students may wear their Sarah shirt or wear blue today (Dress code bottoms).

On Fridays during the month of March we will be wearing our Sarah K/blue shirts (dress code bottoms) in support of the Kunik family. We are asking students to bring in one dollar each week and the proceeds will go to the family.
